

Brookline Sister City Week

October 18-24, 2015

Celebrating 28 Years of the
Brookline-Quezalguaque Sister City Project (BQSCP)

Sunday, October 18th at 2 PM

Dance & music program featuring the youth dance troupe of "La Piñata"

- Coolidge Corner Branch of the Brookline Public Library (37 Pleasant St, Brookline)
- Families are welcome; free admission.

Sponsors: Brookline Public Library & BQSCP

Sunday, October 19th at 7 PM

Science on Screen: Erin Brockovich

- Before playing the film, epidemiologist Daniel Brooks will give an overview of the long-term epidemic of chronic kidney disease in Quezalguaque.
- Coolidge Corner Theatre (290 Harvard St, Brookline)
- www.coolidge.org/films/erin-brockovich

Sponsors: Coolidge Corner Theatre & BQSCP

Thursday, October 22nd at 5:30-7 PM

Celebration & Fundraiser for the Brookline-Quezalguaque Sister City

- Brookline Teen Center (40 Aspinwall Ave, Brookline)
- www.BrooklineSisterCity.org

Sponsors: Individual, corporate & organizational sponsorships from $250 to $5,000. Suggested minimum contribution $50/person.

Public Forum at 7:30 PM (following the celebration & fundraiser)

- Keynote speaker: BHS Graduate & Award Winning Foreign Correspondent Stephen Kinzer, Author of Blood of Brothers, Life and Death in Nicaragua. Moderator: Governor Michael Dukakis

*Registration is recommended:

<http://www.campusce.net/brookline/course/course.aspx?C=2092&pc=58&mc=71&sc=0>

Sponsors: Brookline Adult & Community Education (BA&CE), the Brookline Interfaith Clergy Association & BQSCP

"The BQSCP represents the very best of people in two communities of the world, learning about each other & believing that with generosity & resolve, good things are possible."